Notes from your First Year Library Advisor

Issue 5, December 2016

Take some time for fun self-care

In the Mudd Academic Commons,
we have a bunch of coloring books and crayons.
Color away your stress.

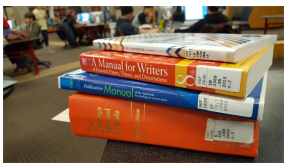
Or make your very own snowman in the Science Library!

Off-campus access

Did you know that you can access Oberlin's research databases and other digital content even when you're off campus?

Find out how!

Citation station



Come see us at the Research Help Desk for help in properly citing sources for your papers. We've got a great selection of print and online style manuals and citation guides.

Due dates

Need to keep a book past the Dec. 15 due date?

Want to see a list of everything you have checked out?

Wondering if you can take books home over Winter Term?
