

INVENTORY

Box 1

Series 1. Committee on Afro-American Studies, Oberlin College, 1969-70

Committee on Afro-American Studies Records, 1969-70 (3f)

Series 2. Student/Faculty Organizations, Oberlin College, 1967-70

Oberlin College Alliance for Black Culture, 1967-70

Oberlin College Student Senate, 1969-70

Series 3. Education Commission, Oberlin College, 1971

Education Commission Records, 1971 (2f)

Series 4. Black Studies Seminar, Aspen, CO [July 19-25, 1970], 1964, 1968-70

Agendas, 1970

"Analysis of a National Sample of Black Studies Programs" by Armistead L. Robinson, table of contents and questionnaire data prepared for seminar Background Materials Vol. 1

Background Materials for seminar participants, 1970, 3 vols. (3f)

Background Paper, Student Section by Wendell P. Russell (drafts), 1970 (3f)

Bibliographies, 1969-70, n.d.

Black Studies Programs, 1969-70

Correspondence, 1969-70

Ford Foundation, "The Role of the Foundations in Non-Western Studies" by George M. Beckmann, 1964

Itinerary packet for seminar participants, 1970

List of Black Studies directors, 1970

Nairobi College, information on, n.d.

Notes by Wendell P. Russell, 1970

Participant mailing, pre-seminar, 1970

Position Paper, "The Ford Foundation and Afro-American Studies," unknown author, 1969

Questionnaire on Black Studies, 1970 (3f)

Reports

"Academy Report to the Black Workshop," Yale University, September 15, 1969

Series 4. Black Studies Symposium (cont.)

Box 1 (cont.)

Reports (cont.)

“Graduate Education and Black Americans,” by Fred E. Crossland to the Ford Foundation, November 25, 1968

Report to the Ford Foundation on the Aspen Black Studies Seminar by the Academy for Educational Development, Inc., prepared by Wendell
P. Russell, Jr., August 21, 1970 (draft)

Summary Reports and Papers, 1969-70

Transcript of Proceedings, 1971

Writings on Black Studies, 1969-70, n.d.

Writings: Confidential Notes on the Yale Symposium by David B. Davis, 1968

RESTRICTED

Series 5. Resources collected by Wendell P. Russell for Personal Use, 1968-70

Black Studies--General, 1968-69

Institute of the Black World, 1969-70