WARNING OF COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17 United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, archives and libraries are authorized to make available a photocopy or other reproduction. Among the specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction (whether analog or digital) is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. Oberlin College reserves the right to refuse to copy some items if, in its judgment, the request involves a violation of copyright law.

Duplication of items from the photograph collection of the Oberlin College Archives is governed by the policy stated above. Further reproduction of images, including digital, from Oberlin's collections is permitted only after the completion of the APPLICATION FOR PHOTOGRAPHIC PUBLICATION. The completion of this form does not imply clearance of any copyright restrictions other than those vested in Oberlin College. It is the responsibility of the party using photographs from the collections of the Oberlin College Archives to ascertain and clear copyright restrictions on photographs provided from the photograph collection(s).
