

Application for Senior Experience Courses 2005-06

Due by Wed. March 23 4:30 p.m., English Department, Rice 130

Name: _____ Email address _____

OCMR No. _____ T-number _____ Advisor: _____

Standard English Major, check here Concentration Major (specify which) _____

Expected date of graduation _____

1. My first choice for the Senior Experience requirement is _____.
_____. (Give us the course title, prof, and semester). If this is a tutorial, indicate your possible topic(s).

2. My second choice for the Senior Experience requirement is _____.
_____. (Give us the course title, prof, and semester). If this is a tutorial, indicate your possible topic(s).

3. My third choice course for the Senior Experience requirement is _____.
_____. (Give us the course title, prof, and semester). If this is a tutorial, indicate your possible topic(s).

4. If you indicated all tutorials above, please indicate one seminar (with course title, prof, and semester) you'd be willing to take if we need to place you in one. Conversely, if you indicated all seminars above, please indicate one tutorial (with course title, prof, and semester) you'd be willing to take if we need to place you in one. If you note a tutorial, please mention a topic you'd be interested in.

5. Please indicate if you have a serious interest in pursuing Honors (if invited) for Fall and Spring 2005-2006 (for May 2006 grads)
Comment on possible topics:

6. Please indicate if you have a serious interest in pursuing Honors (if invited) for Spring 2006 and Fall 2006 (for Dec. 2006 grads)
Comment on possible topics:

(Invitations to pursue Honors will be sent out Wednesday March 16 with an application form. Applications for Honors will be due Wed. April 6.)

Even if you are invited to apply for Honors, you must return this application form and apply for seminars or tutorials in case you are not selected for Honors.