

*Email applications to rian.brown@oberlin.edu (no paper copies please)*

CINEMA STUDIES PRACTICUM – Application Form

Rian Brown-Orso · CINE 399 · FALL 2008

Variable Credit (1-3 Hours) · Class T/Th 11:40-1:10.

The practicum is for students who wish to produce advanced media projects (narrative, experimental, fiction, documentary) of their own design. Although they will consult closely with faculty as they develop and execute their projects, students will provide each other critical and technical support and must be sufficiently motivated and self-disciplined to see their own projects to completion. Previous production training or experience and a specific, feasible project proposal are required to gain consent.

Name: _____ Year _____

Major: _____ T#: _____

Email(s): _____ Phone(s): _____

• List by name, number, and teacher the film or Cinema Studies classes you have taken.

• Describe previous media production training and experience (courses, internships, jobs, independent work, etc.). Be specific and honest about what you've learned and in what areas you consider yourself proficient and deficient. Please identify specific equipment, hardware, software, etc. you've used.

- Describe anything about yourself that you consider relevant to this class and tell me anything else you'd like me to know about you.

- Please attach here a brief, specific, and feasible proposal for the project you wish to undertake in the practicum.