Resources for FYSP 163: She Works Hard for the Money
Cynthia H. Comer, Reference & Instruction Dept., Oberlin College Library

FINDING BACKGROUND INFORMATION

  http://www.bls.gov/ooh/
  Describes hundreds of occupations, including what workers do on the job, work environment, training and education required, earnings, and expected job prospects.

  Occupational and employment information, including overviews of the job market for the U.S. and all fifty states. Profiles nearly 900 specific occupations, including data on employment growth and wages; typical tasks and activities; and education, training, knowledge, skills, and abilities required.

Women’s Bureau, U.S. Department of Labor. http://www.dol.gov/wb/
  Government agency created in 1920 to improve the status and working conditions of wage-earning women, increase their efficiency, and advance their opportunities for profitable employment.

  Start at http://www.oberlin.edu/career/ then choose “Ready: Prepare and Explore,” then “Researching Careers,” then VAULT.
  Includes career, industry, and company guides, as well as articles and advice on careers and job hunting. Subscription provided by Oberlin College Office of Career Services; registration is required.

WHAT ABOUT WIKIPEDIA? “the free encyclopedia that anyone can edit”

Articles may help you refine ideas, and the notes and references may help you find additional sources, but keep in mind that the “crowd-sourced” nature of Wikipedia means that while the information may be immensely useful, it’s not necessarily scholarly, authoritative, or the type of source to include in a bibliography for an academic paper. See these pages for relevant entries:
  Women in the workforce
  Category:Women by occupation

FINDING BOOKS AND OTHER LIBRARY MATERIALS

OBIS is the Oberlin College Library’s online catalog; it lists most library materials. Online requesting/borrowing is available through the OhioLINK Library Catalog, which combines the holdings of 120 libraries at Ohio colleges and universities, and through SearchOhio, which does the same for 28 Ohio public library systems. All three catalogs are searchable by Author or Title for a specific author or work, or by Subject Heading or Keyword for works about a topic, person, place, etc.

Search tip: There are numerous subject headings for women in specific occupations (e.g., women legislators, women in mathematics, women rock musicians, women in the theater). For information on specific careers and occupations, try keyword searches, combining the phrase “vocational guidance” with a word that describes a field or occupation (e.g., music and vocational guidance).

Selected subject headings:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Businesswomen</th>
<th>Women employees</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Discrimination in employment</td>
<td>Women executives</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sex discrimination in employment</td>
<td>Women owned business enterprises</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sex discrimination against women</td>
<td>Women white collar workers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wages -- Women</td>
<td>Women -- Employment -- United States</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Exercise for searching OBIS for books relevant to your topic
2. Select the CATALOG tab, change the drop-down search option to Subject; search: wages women
3. Click on Limit/Sort Search; for Year of Publication, in the From box type 2005, and click Search

USING DATABASES TO FIND ARTICLES IN SCHOLARLY JOURNALS

Connect from Databases tab on the Library home page search box, or use the Quick Links drop-down menu

To determine if the library has a particular journal, Use “360 Link to Full Text” or “Find It!” where available in research databases, or search Journal Finder from Library home page or the Quick Links pull-down menu

Multidisciplinary: Academic Search Complete
Business, careers: Business Source Complete
EconLit
Gender, women: Gender Studies Database
Women’s Studies International
History: America: History and Life
Medicine, health: MEDLINE (EBSCO version recommended)
Sociology: SocINDEX

Exercise for searching Academic Search Complete for scholarly journal articles relevant to your topic
2. Choose the Databases tab; under the “by subject” drop-down search option, choose Any Subject/Multidisciplinary; find and select Academic Search Complete
3. In box 1 enter search terms for the first concept, each connected by “or”
4. In box 2 enter search terms for the second concept, each connected by “or,” and click Search
5. Refine results by choosing “Scholarly (Peer Reviewed) Journals”
6. In box 3 enter search terms for the third concept, each connected by “or,” and click Search

SUMMON – first (and default) tab on library home page search box

• searches across the spectrum of library content: books, scholarly articles, newspapers, audio, video, images, data, government documents, and more; searches most, but not all, library resources
• draws from OBIS, full text and article indexing databases, and digital repositories from colleges, universities, research centers, and other open-access archives
• comprehensive or complex searches should be done in subject-specific databases
• OBIS and OhioLINK are generally better for finding books
• if links don’t lead to full text, be persistent or ask for help; we sometimes do have access

Exercise for searching Summon for additional articles relevant to your topic
1. From the library home page, make sure the Summon tab is selected
2. In the Search box, type: women lawyers
3. Under Refine Your Search, select Scholarly and Peer-Review
4. Add an additional concept to women lawyers: glass ceiling
5. Change publication date to the last 10 years: 2005-present
Finding Statistics

Employment and wage estimates for over 800 occupations. These are estimates of the number of people employed in certain occupations, and estimates of the wages paid to them. Estimates are available for the nation as a whole, for individual states, and for metropolitan and nonmetropolitan areas; national occupational estimates for specific industries are also available.

Monthly Labor Review. BLS/USDOL. http://stats.bls.gov/opub/mlr/

Publication reporting on labor issues; reports on research in a wide variety of fields—the labor force, the economy, employment, inflation, productivity, wages, prices, and more.

Highlights employment-related data collected in the Current Population Survey; check out the Most-Requested CPS Tables section for frequently-sought data.

Wider Opportunities for Women (WOW). http://www wowonline.org

Promotes empowerment, equity, economic security, and education and employment opportunities across the lifespan. Publishes research reports on inequities in the labor market. Select the Resources box from the home page, then National Center for Women’s Employment Equity (NCWEE) for sample reports.

ProQuest Statistical Abstract of the United States. Choose from Databases tab on library home page.

Includes frequently sought data on a wide range of topics, often in summary form.

Social Explorer. Choose from Databases tab on library home page.

Provides tools for exploration of demographic information from census and economic data.

Search tip: There are numerous other sources for statistical data. Ask for help at the Research Desk!
