Jill Medina ’88 currently serves as the associate director of admissions. Prior to working in admissions, she worked in Oberlin’s residential education department.

“As part of the first class of trained mediators, it was a wonderful experience to see OCDC and the Ombuds Office in it’s early stages. Now to see all the enthusiasm and energy that has been building for 10 years is truly inspiring.”