Barefoot Dialogue Student Panel

AJ Lewis Center, Hallock Auditorium

Barefoot Dialogue is an experiment in human and land relating and belongs in the larger genre of sustained dialogue. Barefoot brings together groups of 12-16 students who meet twice monthly over meals hosted by faculty and staff and across the full academic year. These groups are guided by a pair of trained student facilitators, who invite participants to choose vulnerability as a more beneficial way to draw out differences and encourage a deeper listening. Join us for this panel of students as they share from their Barefoot experiences and reflect openly on how this work impacts their relating on campus, back home, and in our larger society. Sponsored by '73, '74, '75. All are welcome.

Alcohol

Under Ohio state law, people younger than 21 may not purchase or be served alcoholic beverages. The college requests that all guests conform to the letter and spirit of the law.

No alcohol will be provided by the college in the residence halls; however, alumni and other guests may purchase their own alcoholic beverages for socials in the residence halls. Also, due to Oberlin's history of temperance and restrictions in certain Ohio wards within Oberlin, Ohio, we are unable to serve wine in Stevenson Hall and the Root Room in Carnegie Building for ticketed events. A wide assortment of beverages, including beer, hard ciders, and malt will be provided during reunion meals in those locations. We thank you for your understanding.

Alcoholics Anonymous Meetings

AA meetings are scheduled on Saturday, 8:30 a.m. (this is an open meeting) at First Church of Oberlin (106 N. Main St.). On Sunday, there is a meeting at 4:00 p.m. for men only at First Church of Oberlin. To find other meeting times and locations, go to www.aaohio.org.

Allen Memorial Art Museum

The Allen Memorial Art Museum (AMAM) features the permanent collection and eight exhibitions. Hours: Friday through Sunday, 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Closed on Monday. Art Highlights tours will be given by student docents on Saturday at 1:00 p.m. starting at the central King Sculpture Court. Visit www2.oberlin.edu/amam/ for information.

Alma Mater – Ten Thousand Strong by Jason Noble Pierce

Ten thousand strong sing we a song,
Oberlin, to thee;
Oh, worthy art thou of fame!
In lands afar shineth thy star
Setting bondmen free;
Belov'd is thy glorious name,
Belov'd is thy glorious name.
Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Hail to thee, Oberlin, honored Mother!
Old Oberlin forever
Our Alma Mater dear,
We crown thee "fairest college,"
Thy name we love to hear,
Long reign in royal splendor,
Our hearts shall be thy throne!
Old Oberlin, brave Mother,
Thou reignest alone.

C

College & Main

Downtown Oberlin and Oberlin College have much to offer each other, and the college is grateful for the many local businesses that make Oberlin the unique small town that it is. Oberlin is inviting local residents to enjoy many weekend concerts, art shows, and recitals. We've also created a passport program to encourage visitors to Oberlin to explore Oberlin's local businesses. For more information, visit go.oberlin.edu/collegeandmain.

D

Dates for Commencement/Reunion Weekends

In 2012, the Oberlin College faculty approved academic calendar changes. As a result of these changes, commencement ceremonies will not always fall on Memorial Day. Commencement is now held on the fourth Monday each May. In some years, such as 2019, that fourth Monday is also Memorial Day.

Donations

Have you contributed to your class or cluster reunion gift or made a donation in honor of your graduate? If not, there is still time! Visit oberlin.edu/donate to give securely online (donations will automatically be credited toward your class or cluster gift, or you may specify a gift in honor of your graduate). You may also write a check at the Commencement/Reunion Welcome Center.

E

Emergencies, 7-911 or x58444

When using a college phone, dial 7 first, then the outside number you are calling. To summon Oberlin police, fire, or ambulance from a campus phone, dial 7-911. To summon Campus Security, dial x58444 for non-emergencies and x58911 for emergencies.

For non-emergency medical assistance, call Mercy Allen Hospital at 440.775.1211. For non-emergencies, The Oberlin Police Department can be reached at 440.774.1061 and the Oberlin Fire Department at 440.774.3211.

F

H

Health and Wellness

The Department of Athletics is committed to promoting healthy lifestyles and providing health and wellness opportunities for our guests. Explore all that the Philips Physical Education Center and the new Patricia '63 & Merrill '61 Shanks Health and Wellness Center have to offer. Visitors will have full access to cardio equipment, the weight room, sauna, indoor and outdoor track, and basketball, tennis, racquetball, and squash courts. Equipment can be borrowed from the equipment room with an Oberlin ID. Lockers and towels are available for a small fee. Non-marking shoes must be worn and proper athletic shoes must be worn on all the courts. Hours: Friday: 6:00 a.m.-10:00 p.m.; Saturday: 9:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. (closed at 2:00 p.m. for Hall of Honors Ceremony); Sunday: 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Closed on Monday.

Heisman Hall of Honor

The Oberlin College John W. Heisman Club will officially enshrine three new members into its Hall of Honor on Saturday:

Virginia Covalt, longtime equipment manager and champion of student-athletes

David Eisner '69, student-athlete, philanthropist, Alumni Association and Heisman Club leader

Richard "Dick" Levin, former Oberlin College professor and advocate of the student-athlete experience

Histories in Your Pocket

Enjoy Oberlin histories at your own pace, on your own schedule! 20-30 minute walking tours are available for free download on both iPhones and Androids on the IZI Travel app. To download, search for izi.travel-city guides in your applications store, open the app, and enter Oberlin in the search bar. Tours include "Oberlin College: The First Century," "Oberlin's African-American Community: Historic Groveland," and more. Tours are brought to you by the Coalition for Oberlin History and supported by members of the Oberlin Heritage Center, the Oberlin African-American Genealogy and History Group, the Oberlin College Archives, and the Oberlin College community.

K

Kendal at Oberlin

Come visit Kendal at 600 Kendal Dr. and learn about retirement living options near your alma mater. Stroll the grounds or the art galleries and tour renovated cottages, apartments and community spaces. The current art exhibition Kendal Collects features favorite works of art collected by residents. Tours will be available or just stop by and enjoy some friendly conversation. During open house hours, if transportation is needed from reunion headquarters to Kendal, please call 440-775-0094. Hours: Friday, 1:00-4:30 p.m., Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, 9:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Key(s)

Please help us reduce costs by returning residence hall keys or key cards before you leave campus. You may leave your key in the gray drop box in the lobby of your headquarters or return it to the Commencement/Reunion Welcome Center. A charge of $20 for each lost key card and $60 for each physical key will be assessed.

L

Laundry

Each residence hall has a laundry room. We do not provide laundry soap or fabric softener. If you need these supplies, we encourage you to shop at one of the local vendors in downtown Oberlin.

Lost and Found

Check with the Commencement/Reunion Welcome Center, Commencement Platform, or Campus Safety (159 W. Lorain St.) for lost and found items. After Commencement/Reunion Weekend, call the Alumni Office at 440.775.8692 or email alumni@oberlin.edu.

O

Oberlin Alumni Magazine Exhibit

This exhibit is the production timeline of the Oberlin Alumni Magazine, a publication that has been in print for more than 110 years. Artwork, intriguing words from former editors, and historic articles and milestones are just some of the pieces on display in this exhibit located in the Science Center's Bent Corridor.

Oberlin Heritage Center (OHC) and Museum Store

OHC is the local historical society and museum located in the Monroe House, 73½ S. Professor St., on the path behind the Kohl Building. Open hours for the Museum Store and tours: Friday through Sunday, 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Visit our website for more information about our organization and tours at www.oberlinheritagecenter.org.

P

Parking

Please observe the “no parking” signs and park in the authorized college lots (see map in the back of this booklet). If emergency vehicles cannot pass through city streets, tickets will be issued by the Oberlin Police Department. Cars parked in no-parking areas may be towed at the owner's expense. We appreciate your cooperation.

R

Recycling and Sustainability

Oberlin strives to be a model of stewardship for the environment by incorporating ideals of sustainability into the operations of the college, including Commencement/Reunion Weekend. Compostable plates, utensils, cups, and packaging will be used for all outdoor meals and local and organic foods will be served at all meals. The weekend program also features information about Oberlin's 2.27 MW Solar Array and other sustainability initiatives. For more information, visit the Commencement/Reunion Weekend App at <https://guidebook.com/g/obiecrw2019>.

Social Media

Follow, post, and share the Commencement/Reunion fun on social media! As you share your moments on social media, add the tag #ObieCRW. We are collecting photographs and tweets to showcase a more complete view of our celebrations. Look for selfie stations at Bibbins Hall, Tappan Square, Wilder Bowl, and other places.

Stevenson Dining Hall

General meal dining (credit only, pay at the door) will be available in the Stevenson food court during the weekend. Hours of operation are 7:30-9:00 a.m. Friday-Monday for breakfast ($7.25); 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. Friday-Monday for lunch ($8.75) and 5:00-7:00 p.m. Friday-Sunday for dinner ($12.50). Children ages 4-12 are half price; children 3 and under are free.

Swimming

Carr Pool has been newly renovated and re-opened for public use in September of 2018. The pool features ten 25-yard swimming lanes as well as a shallow recreation lane that has been added to allow for walk-in entry and to accommodate therapy programming. Changing rooms and locker rooms are available for use; lockers and towels are available for a small fee at the equipment room. Hours: Friday, Saturday, and Sunday: 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.; Closed on Monday.

Transportation

Shuttle service to and from Cleveland Hopkins International Airport is available from US Event Services for the weekend by advance reservation (very limited walk-on space available). Shuttles will depart from the airport baggage claim level. A customer service representative will meet guests on the baggage claim level at the center Welcome/Information booth at least 10 minutes prior to the pick-up time. Please make online shuttle reservations at go.oberlin.edu/crw-shuttle. If you require a wheelchair lift, please call US Event Services directly at 1.800.972.9940 to make arrangements.

In Oberlin, the shuttle arrives and departs from the shuttle stop in front of the Slow Train Café, located at 55 E. College St., which is conveniently located close to both the Hotel at Oberlin and the Commencement/Reunion Welcome Center, which is located at 65 E. College St., Suite 4. Please be at the pick-up location 10 minutes before departure. The trip to and from Oberlin is approximately 45 minutes. The fare for advance reservations is $32 one way per person or $58 round trip per person.

The Commencement/Reunion Welcome Center has a listing of available taxi services.

W

Weltzheimer-Johnson House Designed by Frank Lloyd Wright

The 1947-49 Usonian house at 534 Morgan St. will be open on Sunday between noon and 5:00 p.m., with presentations beginning every half-hour. Admission is $10 for adults (cash or check, payable at the house only), and free for students with OCID. Walking directions from the Carnegie Building: Walk south on North Professor St. for a half mile. Turn right on Morgan St., and continue for one mile. The house is located on the right side of the street, set back from the road. The walk will take about 30 minutes.

Wireless Access

The Oberlin network is available throughout campus by connecting to ObieWiFi. Use of the Oberlin College network constitutes compliance with the Oberlin College Policy for the Acceptable Use of Information Technology Resources, found at <https://www.oberlin.edu/cit/policies/acceptable-use-policy>.

Worship and Meditation

Local religious communities affiliated with the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life welcome guests for meditation and worship. Please visit <https://www.oberlin.edu/religious-and-spiritual-life/communities/local> for times and locations.

Z

Zechiel House

Zechiel House, a residence hall on the north end of campus, is named after an Oberlin College alumnus and benefactor, Ernest R. Zechiel, who was a member of the Class of 1912. Thanks for providing a “Z,” Mr. Zechiel!
