This is a discussion-based workshop.

This workshop will explore what identities society considers conventionally attractive and gender non-conforming people with language and a shared community as we begin to disrupt cisgender narrative of consent and victimization.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3 | NOON
WILDER 112

PRSM WORKSHOP

TRANSGENIC SEX
This session seeks to empower trans* and gender non-conforming people to deconstruct cisgender narrative of consent and victimization.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3 | 7:30-8:30 PM
WILDER 112

SIC WORKSHOP

NAVIGATING DIFFERENT IDENTITIES IN RELATIONSHIPS
In this 3rd Tues with Prism workshop, we will discuss the challenges present in navigating relationships comprised of people with distinct identities, namely those related to race, class, gender, and sexuality. Following this, we aim to share various healthy strategies to deal with said challenges.

SUNDAY, APRIL 7 | 4:00-6:00 PM
WILDER 112

PRSM WORKSHOP

HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS
If you’ve ever wondered what a healthy relationship looks like, you just wanted to learn more about enhancing your own relationships, this is your workshop. We’ll explore unhealthy behaviors as well as healthy behaviors that support communication and establish boundaries. This is a discussion-based workshop.

MONEY, APRIL 8 | 7:00 PM
KING 123

PRSM AND AAA WORKSHOP

RESILIBILITY AND CONSENT IN MARGINALIZED COMMUNITIES
This workshop is for anyone who believes society considers conventionally attractive and desirable. From that conversation, we will work to deconstruct the images the media creates of who experiences/commits harm, and who is the most psychopathological. This workshop is a collaboration between PRSM and AAA.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10 | 7:30 PM
WILDER 112

SPEAKER AND WORKSHOP

SEXUAL ASSAULT: A STORY OF HEALING AND FORGIVENESS
Maytal Schmidt was sexually assaulted while she was a student at Oberlin. She pressed charges and the person who sexually assaulted her was ultimately prosecuted. Maytal now works with people who have been convicted of sexual offenses. She will speak about her personal journey through healing and forgiveness as well as her clinical work with people who commit sexual offenses.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11 | 7:00-9:00 PM
WILDER 112

ACTIVITY
This workshop with Maytal Schmidt will explore roles of family and therapy in sexual assault as well as what therapy can engage people who commit sexual offenses in healing and building empathy.

SUNDAY, APRIL 14 | 6:00-9:00 PM
WILDER 115

SPEAKER

LIBERATORY RE-IMAGINING: ENVISIONING EQUITABLE APPROACHES TO CAMPUS SEXUAL VIOLENCE PREVENTION AND RESPONSE
Niaah Grimes will discuss new and innovative movement and cultural work for campuses to create sexual violence prevention and response initiatives. Utilizing Queer Black Feminism and liberatory imaging, this session will provide participants with an intersectional and power-conscious lens to approach campus sexual violence advocacy work.

MONDAY, APRIL 15 | 7:00-9:00 PM
KING 106

EXHIBIT

CLOTHESLINE PROJECT
The Clothesline Project is a visual display of t-shirts with graphic messages and illustrations that have been designed by people who have experienced sexual or gender-based violence. The purpose of the project is to increase awareness, to celebrate the strength of those who have experienced harm, and to provide an avenue for them to courageously break the silence that surrounds gender-based violence. This exhibit is being presented by the Nord Center.

TUESDAY, APRIL 16 | 5:00 PM
BENT CORRIDOR
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17 | 7:00 PM
WILDER 112

PRSM WORKSHOP

TALKING ABOUT IDENTITY AND CONSENT WITH THE MRC
In this discussion-based workshop, we will work together to think through how having certain identities can impact the experiences of and dynamics surrounding consent practices.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17 | NOON
WILDER 211

NORD CENTER WORKSHOP

HEALING FROM SEXUAL HARM
Presented by staff from the Nord Center, this workshop will highlight current efforts people experience from sexual harm and will discuss what recovery looks like in the healing process.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17 | 7:00-8:00 PM
WILDER 115

PRSM WORKSHOP

CREATING SPACE FOR DIALOGUE IN SEX AND RELATIONSHIPS
Whether you’re hooking up with someone for the first time or on a long term relationship, communicating your feelings, needs, wants, and desires can be super tough! We will talk about barriers to communication, ways to address them, and work together to come up with real ways to start and continue conversations about sex and relationships.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18 | 7:00-9:00 PM
WILDER 112

PRSM WORKSHOP

TALKING ABOUT MENTAL HEALTH AND CONSENT WITH THE COUNSELING CENTER
In this discussion-based workshop, we will work together and think through how mental health can impact consent practices.

FRIDAY, APRIL 19 | 12:15 PM
WILDER 112

WORKSHOP

ALTERNATIVE METHODS OF COMMUNITY ACCOUNTABILITY
This workshop is designed to give a broad overview of the many different methods of intervention we can take to show up for our community when someone has caused harm. We will talk about methods ranging from public confrontation to different methods of conflict resolution and what long-term bystander intervention looks like. We will talk about best practices when it comes to supporting someone, how to avoid making mistakes, how to hold yourself accountable when you do, and how to navigate your boundaries as a support person.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24 | 7:00-8:30 PM
WILDER 112

THCG WORKSHOP

MAKING CONSENT CONVERSATION: INTENTIONAL COMMUNICATION SKILLS FOR ENHANCING CONVERSATIONS ABOUT CONSENT
Mental Health and the Office of Equity will provide space for participants to explore practical ways to be intentional in their interactions with one another. We will cover techniques for communicating about consent. The facilitators will employ brief scenarios to encourage participants to imagine protective ways to address various situations. Activities will be guided to full group, small group, and paired settings.

THURSDAY, APRIL 25 | 5:00-6:30 PM
WILDER 112

DBI WORKSHOP

DBI: SUBSTANCE SAFETY 101
This workshop is designed to give a broad overview of substance safety (alcohol, cannabis, mixing, etc.) and how to create a community that is safe and promotes the use of substances that can be used safely. This workshop will also touch on active bystandering and tools to provide support so that individuals can make informed choices about their substance use and use those knowledge to keep their community safe.

THURSDAY, APRIL 25 | 7:00-8:30 PM
WILDER 112

PRSM WORKSHOP

CONSENT FOR MEN
This workshop is designed for people who identify as men and covers information about consent, communication, sex, hook-up culture, and relationships.

SUNDAY, APRIL 28 | 12:00-3:00 PM
WILDER 112

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
GO.OBERLIN.EDU/CONSENT-MONTH

COLLEGE OF CONSERVATORY
LET'S MAKE CONSENT A CONVERSATION

PRSM WORKSHOP

TALKING ABOUT DISABILITY AND CONSENT WITH DISABILITY RESOURCES
In this discussion-based workshop, we will work together and think through how having a disability can impact consent practices.

TUESDAY, APRIL 23 | 1:30 PM
WILDER 112

WORKSHOP

FRIENDS CAUSING HARM: INTERVENTION ROLEPLAY
This workshop will be an opportunity to practice the intervention methods we crowdsourced in the Alternative Methods workshop. We will employ a few key methods of confrontation within friendship and think about what long-term bystander intervention looks like. We will talk as a group about the barriers to and messiness of intervention, and strengthen our understandings of what active community care looks like.

TUESDAY, APRIL 23 | 7:00-9:00 PM
WILDER 112

PRSM WORKSHOP

SUPPORT SKILLS
This workshop is designed to help everyone develop skills that would be useful when supporting someone who has experienced harm. We will cover best practices when it comes to supporting someone, how to avoid making mistakes, how to hold your accountability when you do, and how to navigate your boundaries as a support person.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24 | 7:00-8:30 PM
WILDER 112