

Term Life and Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D) Insurance can provide money for your family if you die or are diagnosed with a terminal illness.

If you're currently enrolled and actively at work, you can increase up to $100,000 without medical questions during annual enrollment.

How does it work?

You choose the amount of coverage that's right for you, and you keep coverage for a set period of time, or "term." If you die during that term, the money can help your family pay for basic living expenses, final arrangements, tuition and more.

AD&D Insurance is also available, which pays a benefit if you survive an accident but have certain serious injuries. It pays an additional amount if you die from a covered accident.

Why is this coverage so valuable?

If you previously purchased coverage, you can increase it up to $100,000 to meet your growing needs — with no health questions or exams.

What else is included?

A "Living" Benefit

If you are diagnosed with a terminal illness with less than 12 months to live, you can request 50% of your life insurance benefit (up to $750,000) while you are still living. This amount will be taken out of the death benefit, and may be taxable.

Waiver of premium

Your cost may be waived if you are totally disabled for a period of time.

Portability

You may be able to keep coverage if you leave the company, retire or change the number of hours you work.

Employees or dependents who have a sickness or injury having a material effect on life expectancy at the time their group coverage ends are not eligible for portability.
