On-boarding Guide for New Employees

Employee Resources

Joseph Vitale, Jr.
Chief Human Resources Officer

As CHRO, I would like to welcome you to Oberlin College! We want to ensure that your on-boarding experience is a smooth and successful one.

As an employee of Oberlin College, you are a member of our diverse community with renowned faculty, dedicated staff and inspired students. As we often say, "Oberlin is a place of intense energy and creativity, built on a foundation of academic, artistic, and mutual excellence." Our human resources team will do all we can to help you acclimate to our campus. We hope that you find this on-boarding guide a useful tool to assist you in getting to know and navigate some of those "first steps" as you settle in to your new position and to the larger Oberlin College community. In this guide, you will find many resources available to you as well as communication tools to assist you in staying connected. We feel strongly that the more you know about our college, the more you will benefit from being a part of our community.

As you become accustomed to your new work setting, please feel confident to reach out to your department supervisor or one of our HR staff members to assist you. We are pleased you have chosen to be a part of Oberlin and look forward to your contributions to its success!

Maggie Nieves
Deputy Human Resources Officer

Welcome to Oberlin College! We are happy you have chosen our College to continue your career. Our campus is a place where academic and operational excellence thrives. You have joined a wonderfully dynamic and richly diverse community of faculty, staff and students and we are delighted to add your expertise and dedication to our multi-talented, employee mix. I encourage you to review this guide, which is filled with important information that will help you navigate your early days on campus.

I wish you a pleasant beginning to your new role and I thank you in advance for the many valuable contributions we know you will make to your unit and to the College.

Your Supervisor / Manager

Get questions answered or get pointed in the right direction. Just Ask! Critical departmental/divisional guidelines:

- Understand your title, function, duties and responsibilities and how your job relates to others in your area.
- Your work place/location.
- Reporting of work time and how to report off.
- College closures; holiday, weather, other emergency.

Mission & Values

Oberlin College, an independent coeducational institution, holds a distinguished place among American colleges and universities. Oberlin was the first college to grant undergraduate degrees to women and, historically, was a leader in the education of African Americans. The Oberlin community is known for its academic and musical excellence and its commitment to social engagement and diversity.

Mission Statement

Oberlin educates students for lives of intellectual, musical, and artistic rigor and breadth; sustained inquiry, creativity and innovation; and leadership. Oberlin aims to prepare graduates with the knowledge, skills, and perspectives essential to confront complex issues and to create change and value in the world.

Oberlin is committed to educational access and opportunity. It seeks to offer a diverse and inclusive residential learning environment encouraging a free and respectful exchange of ideas and shares an enduring commitment to a sustainable and just society.
