

TIPS FOR RECOGNIZING STUDENT EMPLOYEES!

Students are an important and valuable part that makeup the workforce at Oberlin College. Here are some suggestions on how to let your student employees know how much their work is appreciated.

Use these tips during National Student Employee Appreciation Week (second full week of April) or any time!

- Decorate office doors or bulletin boards with appreciation notes.
- Decorate student work areas.
- Pot luck, pizza party, lunch outing, or a cake.
- Goodie bags, snacks or small treats.
- Sidewalk Chalk in front of department building, take the time to publicly celebrate your student!
- Thank you cards (standard appreciation cards available on our website)
- Honor your students during a staff meeting
- If your department has a social media page, use it to acknowledge your students.
- Awards/Certificates

These are just some recommendations, feel free to to be creative!
