IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING DEADLINES
AND EXCEPTIONS TO DEADLINES

Students are expected to follow the schedule for all pertinent deadlines. You may have heard about a “one time exception”, “red card”, or “get out of jail free card.” These items do not exist. There is NO automatic one-time exception available to students.

If you miss a deadline, come to the Academic Advising Resource Center/Office of the Registrar immediately. If there are extenuating circumstances beyond your control, you may be permitted to appeal a deadline; however, you have only two weeks following a deadline to appeal. After two weeks, you will not be permitted to appeal.

The current Academic Calendar is available online in the following locations:
- Registrar’s Office Home Page: https://www.oberlin.edu/registrar/resources/academic-calendar
- Catalog: http://catalog.oberlin.edu/

It is your responsibility to observe all deadlines and complete your business before the deadline ends. If you cannot, for any reason, complete your business by a deadline, you must immediately come to the Registrar’s Office and consult with a staff member. Do not delay. We cannot assist you if you do not immediately advise us of your issues.

The complete policies and procedures regarding appeals are available online at our website: https://www.oberlin.edu/registrar/policies-procedures-forms/appeals

Appeals must be requested in person at the Academic Advising Resource Center/Office of the Registrar 101 N. Professor Street.

If you have any questions regarding deadlines or appeals of deadlines, please contact the Academic Advising Resource Center/Office of the Registrar immediately at 440-775-8450, registrar@oberlin.edu, or at 101 N Professor Street.
